Typeface Families

Storybooks Studios uses two typeface styles in the brand. Both are each used differently to represent itself. Duffy Script and Adriana Condensed. All typeface families were chosen to resemble a playfulness essence but at the same time, maintaining a clean look.

Duffy Script

An interpretation of the lettering of contemporary Toronto illustrator Amanda Duffy. This typeface is used as the display font for the company logo.

Adrianna Condensed

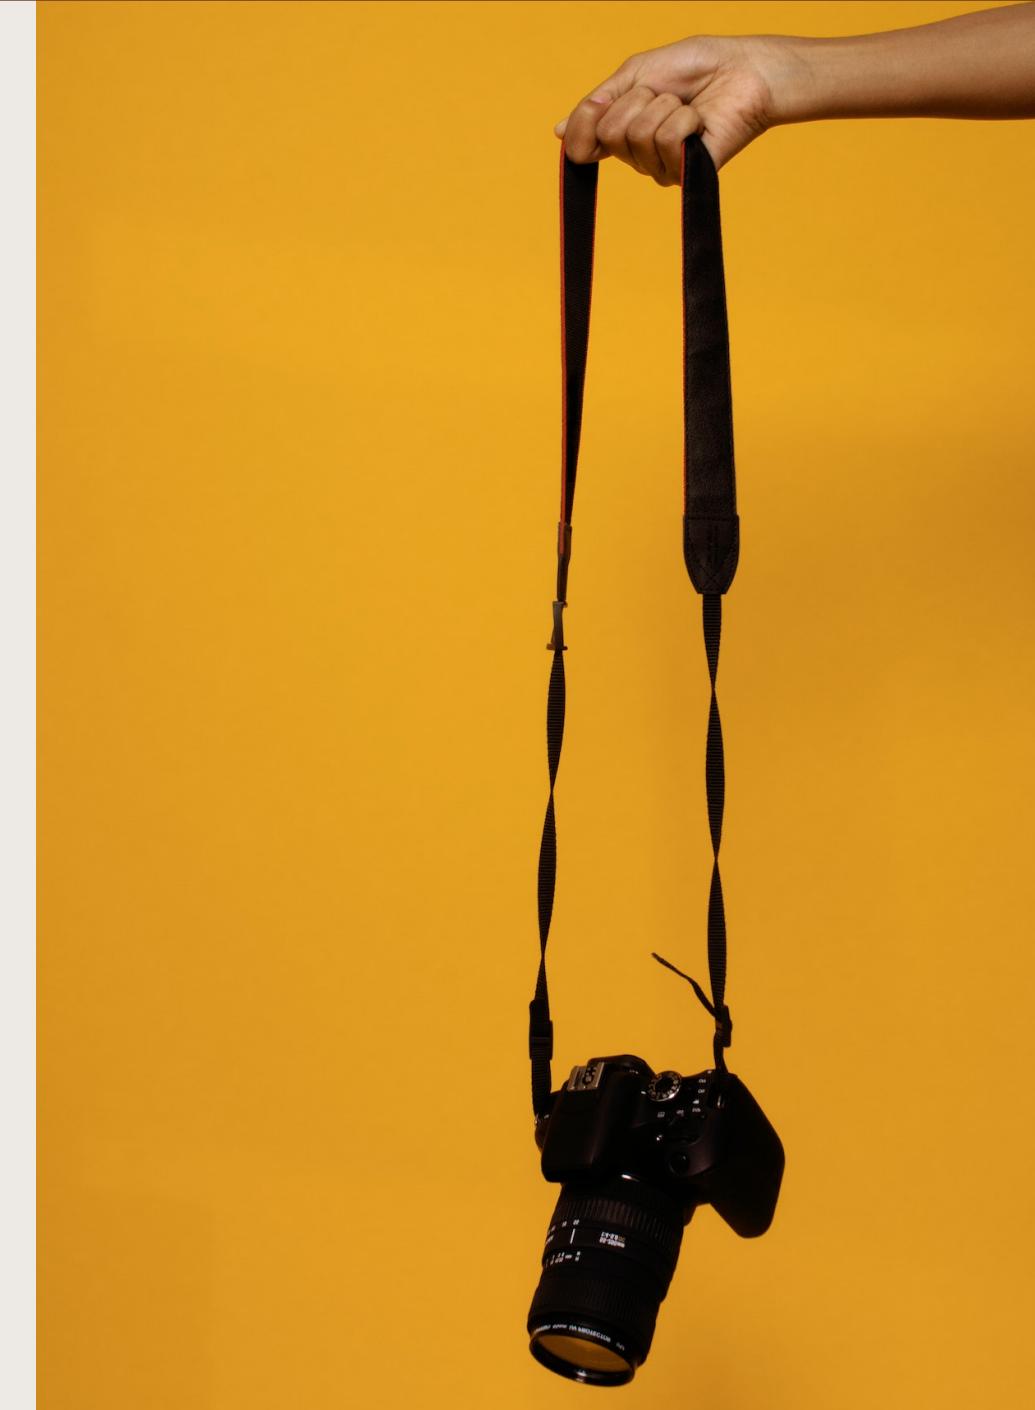

An alternate typeface for the body text and headlines for a cleaner look and professionalism.
